RMSD between modeled and observed length change anomalies